

Solution to Playing Blind

By Mitch Jewell

The arenas, in order, are:

Qwest Field, Seattle, WA– Safeco Field, Seattle, WA

Candlestick Park, San Francisco, CA– McAfee Coliseum, Oakland, CA – AT&T Park, San Francisco, CA

Reliant Astrodome, Houston, TX – Reliant Stadium, Houston, TX

PNC Park, Pittsburgh, PA – Heinz Field, Pittsburgh, PA

Soldier Field, Chicago, IL – Wrigley Field, Chicago, IL

From the lead-in text clues (six ways, feel out), you can guess Braille is involved. If you look at just the arenas in any one city (the Bay Area is considered one city), they make up Braille letters (satellite view, north is up):

Seattle is 'B'

The Bay Area is 'O'

Houston is 'C'

Pittsburgh is 'C'

Chicago is 'E'

These letters, in order, are the answer: BOCCE.
