

ScRaBBAl

The game of ScRaBBAl is a variation of the popular board game Scrabble. The scoring rules and game play are virtually identical, though a different set of tiles with no blanks are used, and players can hold and play many more tiles (no "bingo" bonus for playing all tiles in hand).

NeO has been keeping score in a game and taking notes on the words used. The clue for the final word is missing, but it should be pretty evident from the board and the point value, as well as the tiles played. This game began with Player 1 starting a word on the center square (a double word score premium) and reading to the right.
