

Due to massive windstorms covering the entire planet, the Earth can no longer support life. People are being categorically put into cryo-pods. The cryo-pods are loaded by robots into starships that go thundering off into space for a long evacuation journey. I've eyed the manifest for one such starship, which has an addendum attached. Whoever wrote it must've been in a whirlwind.

PASSENGERS ABOARD THE STARSHIP ATLANTIC

Edna (1954)
Diane (1955)
Arlene (1963)
Camille (1969)
Opal (1995)
Tanya (1995)
Paloma (2008)

1. Tanya comes before Edna, who has only one neighbor.
2. Tanya comes before Camille, who comes just after the third cryo-pod.
3. Diane comes just before Edna.
4. Opal comes after Paloma.
5. Paloma comes after Arlene.
6. Tanya is the captain of the starship. Therefore, Tanya is placed closest to the entrance.
7. Diane comes after Tanya.
