

Wordplay

While looking for clues, PI3 found this list of definitions to fake words. At first it appeared useless, but then someone noticed that each fake word is made up of two known words, where the last syllable of the first word sounds the same as the first syllable of the second word.

Witness: Tammy Culter

1. Syntactic place to dock (7, 6)
2. Chase after raw fish (6, 5)
3. Cranky legume (6, 6)
4. Sea officer cooked just until firm (7, 7)
5. Cartoon subject of study (5, 5)
6. By the book frozen dessert (6, 7)
7. Over grilling a carnival game (8, 8)
8. Inside the world wide web (6, 8)
9. Bestial large fish (7, 8)
10. Ketchup in your mind (9, 6)