

Solution to Divine Roles

By Andy Crane

First you should notice that reading down the first column spells out “Who played God.” The items listed all map to TV shows or movies with God as a character. If you put the names into the blanks, you don’t get anything useful. However, if you decrypt the actor names before placing them into the grid, things will work out better. Below is the list of decrypted movie names, actor, decrypted actor names, and highlighted letter
