SOLUTION: Rewritten

THIS IS PART 2 OF A SECRET 2-PART PUZZLE. Read the answer for "History" first then read the answer for "Rewritten".

Players aren't told this is a continuation of an earlier puzzle. There is no puzzle on the page, just a cryptic note that "nothing is written" and that they must go back in time to an earlier puzzle and "RIGHT a past WRONG". Several clues point to "History" as the puzzle to revisit. In "History", the word WRONG is a given answer – but the word RIGHT could also answer the given clue. Players must replace WRONG with RIGHT and re-solve every clue to a new answer. The puzzle grid has two completely valid solutions depending on the starting word! (The hopeless answer from "History" is transformed into an answer with new hope. Free will wins!)
