

SOLUTION: Eyes on the Ocean

Author: Geoffrey Siu

Each of the ocean travelers is a famous person:

Janet Jackson, who sang "That's the Way Love Goes" and had a wardrobe malfunction in Super Bowl XXXVIII

Diana, the Roman goddess of hunting, the moon, and nature

Carmen Sandiego, the famous criminal. Where in the world or where in time is she?

Anita Ekberg, a Swedish-Italian actress and model who starred in "La Dolce Vita"

Carla Bruni, who sang, "Quelqu'un m'a dit" and later married Nicolas Sarkozy

Wilma Flintstone, the cartoon character who lived next door to Barney Rubble

Joan of Arc, the Maid of Orléans, who led the French during the Hundred Years War

Betsy Ross, who may have sewn the first American flag

Ocean travelers with one eye, in the "waters and winds of the rough Atlantic seas," are Atlantic hurricanes. Recognizing the first names as hurricanes, ordering them "one after the other" by the year the hurricane name was retired, and indexing into the names by their category, we get:

- JANET (1955), Category 5
- CARLA (1961), Category 5
- BETSY (1965), Category 4
- CARMEN (1974), Category 4
- ANITA (1977), Category 5
- JOAN (1988), Category 4
- DIANA (1990), Category 2
- WILMA (2005), Category 5
