

Bubble Trouble

by Isaac Banner

As the puzzle suggests, each line is made of jumbled ingredients for the famous potion in Shakespeare's Macbeth (despite the flavor text being in an amphibrachic meter rather than an iambic one, a choice the author does not regret). Removing the ingredients leaves one remaining letter in each line, which forms one final jumble. Unscrambling the jumble reveals the ingredient missing from the order.

AAACDEFGLNOORST

SCALE OF DRAGON + A

ABDDEFKORRS

ADDERS FORK + B

ADEFGILLRSZ

LIZARDS LEG + F

EEEFNOTWY

EYE OF NEWT + L

BDGIILMNNOORSSTW

BLIND WORMS STING + O

EFFGOOOORT

TOE OF FROG + O

DEFGGNOOOOTU

TONGUE OF DOG + O

EGHILNOSTTWW

HOWLETS WING + T

FFHLOOOOTTWW

TOOTH OF WOLF + W

ANSWER:

WOOL OF BAT