Sometimes the best way to deal with a tragedy is to ask a trusted person for help.

Did you ever hear the tragedy of _____? I thought not. It's not a story the other heroes would tell you. It's a legend of intelligent systems. _____ was a red hero of the flame badge, so powerful and so wise he could use his falchion in defiant defense of his domain... He had such a knowledge of the red side that he could even keep the ones he cared about from dying. The red side of the Triangle is a pathway to many abilities some consider to be unnatural. He became so powerful... the only thing he was afraid of was losing his power, which eventually, of course, he did. Unfortunately, he taught his apprentice everything he knew, then his apprentice, upon inheriting all this knowledge, sent him home. Ironic. He could save others from death, but not himself.
