

Las Vegas,

SEATTLE
SEATTLE

The Center of the Universe

By: Han-Wen Yeh

Going down the rows, the first letters of each row spell the word "SEMAPHORES". This indicates that flag semaphores are needed to solve this puzzle. Flag semaphores can be thought of as consisting of two flags diverging from a center point (the person holding the flags). As hinted by both the title of the puzzle and the introduction sentence, Las Vegas is the center point, and the two flags point toward the two locations in each row. The flag semaphore in each row represents a letter, and after finding the letters, you should get the answer, "MELTINGPOT".
