

Set Construction

Clyde Law

Difficulty

Easy

The set designer gave us the plans for the set we're going to use in the opening sequence of the movie. The director wants us to create a model of the set first before we start construction to make sure everything looks right. He's planning to start the opening sequence with a dramatic overhead shot of the scene.

