

New TV Series

Katie Flinn

Difficulty

Easy

I got a great idea for a new prime time series, a spin off from a movie series. It focuses on the life of a character who isn't fully explained in the movies. Now I'm not paranoid, but you can never be too careful in this business. You never know when some snake will come in and slither, link your ideas, and pitch them to the networks before you even realize they've been stolen! Just in case, I've taken extra precautions to protect my notes.
